

AAHOA Golf Tournament Fundraiser Coming to Albuquerque

ATLANTA, May 25, 2017 - The Asian American Hotel Owners Association (AAHOA) will host its annual Southwest Region Charity Golf Tournament next Wednesday, May 31, to raise funds for Albuquerque nonprofit Casa Esperanza, an organization that provides housing for out-of-town families who have been referred to Albuquerque for cancer treatment, and the Pediatric Cancer Research Foundation, which strives to improve quality of life and survival rates for children with cancer.

Last year, the tournament raised over $4,000 for Child Crisis Arizona and the Pediatric Cancer Research Foundation.

The Albuquerque event, hosted this year at the Isleta Eagle Golf Course, is open to the public and welcomes four-member teams to participate. Individuals are also invited to register and will be assigned on an ongoing basis to teams with fewer than four members. Play will begin at noon and conclude at 3 PM. Registration is $150 for AAHOA members and $170 for non-members and includes a T-shirt and a meal.

For more information and to register, please visit AAHOA.com.

AAHOA is the largest hotel owners association in the world. The more than 16,000 AAHOA members own almost 1 in every 2 hotels in the United States. With billions of dollars in property assets and hundreds of thousands of employees, AAHOA members are core economic contributors in virtually every community in the United States. As an association, AAHOA is a proud defender of free enterprise and the foremost current-day example of realizing the American Dream.