AAHOA Chairwoman Panwala, Interim President & CEO Humphrey Help Launch 2019 ALIS Summer Update

ATLANTA, Ga., July 12 – At the 2019 ALIS Summer Update held this week in Los Angeles, Calif. and Chicago, Ill., AAHOA Chairwoman Jagruti Panwala and Interim President and CEO Rachel Humphrey touted the partnership between ALIS and AAHOA and the benefits the ALIS conferences provide to the hotel industry.

On Tuesday at the Embassy Suites LAX North in Los Angeles, AAHOA Chairwoman Jagruti Panwala participated on a panel, “A View from the Top.” In her closing remarks to the conference, she lauded AAHOA's and ALIS's collaborative efforts in connecting industry leaders to discuss ideas for the future of hospitality.

“ALIS offers an important opportunity for our industry to discuss the issues affecting hospitality and the road ahead. AAHOA is grateful to work with Jeff Higley and his team to co-host the ALIS Summer Update for the third year in a row,” said Panwala.

On Thursday at the Hiltons at McCormick Place in Chicago, AAHOA Interim President and CEO Rachel Humphrey moderated the panel “View from the Boardroom” and delivered closing remarks.

“We are grateful for the chance to bring AAHOA and ALIS together to create these informative sessions and the networking opportunities that strengthen our industry. I always enjoy attending the ALIS and the ALIS Law conferences because of all the forward-looking and constructive conversations they foster about hospitality and its future. We have a chance to hear from some of the industry’s sharpest minds, and I hope attendees found the topics discussed here to be insightful and informative,” said Humphrey.

The 2019 ALIS Summer Update concludes this month with two more events held in Washington, D.C. on July 23, and in Boston, Mass. on July 25. For more information, visit <https://www.burba.com/alissummerupdate>.
