AAHOA Statement on Final Overtime Rule

ATLANTA, Ga., Sep. 25 – AAHOA Interim President and CEO Rachel Humphrey issued the following statement in response to the U.S. Department of Labor’s issuance of the final overtime rule that makes 1.3 million American workers eligible for overtime pay under the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA):

“America’s hoteliers applaud the administration for updating overtime regulations to create clarity and consistency for employers and employees alike. By raising the overtime eligibility annual salary cap to a reasonable level, the administration expands the number of eligible workers while providing small business owners with an appropriate amount of time to plan for its implementation.”

About AAHOA:

AAHOA is the largest hotel owners association in the world. The over 18,500 AAHOA members own almost one in every two hotels in the United States. With billions of dollars in property assets and hundreds of thousands of employees, AAHOA members are core economic contributors in virtually every community. AAHOA is a proud defender of free enterprise and the foremost current-day example of realizing the American dream.
