AAHOA Congratulates Kentucky on Right-to-Work Passage

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Asian American Hotel Owners Association president and CEO Chip Rogers congratulated lawmakers, Gov. Matt Bevin (R, Ky.) and the people of Kentucky today for the passage of the right-to-work bill:

“Congratulations to the great people of Kentucky. The right to work, free from interference of organized labor, should be part of being an American—regardless of where you live. It is great to know Gov. Bevin and the leadership of the Kentucky legislature understand and embrace this basic tenant of individual freedom. As more and more states move towards protecting individual worker rights our nation’s economy will grow and every citizen will benefit.”

Founded in 1989, AAHOA (www.aahoa.com) is the largest hotel owners association in the world, with more than 16,000 small business owner-members, including more than 300 in the commonwealth of Kentucky. AAHOA members own almost one in every two hotels in the United States.
