AAHOA Membership Reaches 16,000

ATLANTA, Oct. 21, 2016 - The Asian American Hotel Owners Association (AAHOA) has announced that its hotel-owner membership has officially reached a record 16,000.

Already the world's largest hotel owners association, AAHOA's burgeoning growth in the past two years is evident not only in the size of its membership, but in its rapidly expanding partnerships with key industry brands.

"I am enormously proud of AAHOA's progress and grateful to everyone who played a part in helping us reach this milestone," said AAHOA President and CEO Chip Rogers. "I'd like especially to thank our members for their loyalty and support and the AAHOA Board of Directors for their relentless hard work on AAHOA's behalf."

AAHOA broke its previous membership record of 15,200 in August and set a year-end goal of 16,000.

"Reaching this goal more than two months ahead of schedule tells you all you need to know about AAHOA," added AAHOA Chairman Bharat "Bruce" Patel. "We are strong, we are united, and we are honored to help lead this amazing industry."

AAHOA's 16,000th member was Marsha Miron of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

Founded in 1989, AAHOA is the largest hotel owner's association in the world, with more than 16,000 small business owner-members. AAHOA members own almost one in every two hotels in the United States.
