AAHOA Statement on American Health Care Act

WASHINGTON – Chip Rogers, president and CEO of the Asian American Hotel Owners Association, released the following statement regarding the new health care reform proposal, the American Health Care Act:

“The current law simply does not work. The costs are too high and options too few. We recognize there is no replacement which will satisfy every concern. However, any plan which moves us towards market-based solutions and reduces the unworkable mandates on job creators is an improvement.”

Founded in 1989, AAHOA (www.aahoa.com) is the largest hotel owners association in the world, with more than 16,000 small business owner-members. AAHOA members own almost one in every two hotels in the United States.
