

AAHOA Young Professionals' First-Ever "Day at Hyatt" to Draw Dozens to the Windy City

ATLANTA - July 14, 2016 - More than three dozen Asian American Hotel Owners Association (AAHOA) Young Professional (YP) members will attend the first-ever "Day at Hyatt" tomorrow in Chicago.

The day will include two hotel tours and multiple educational sessions on Hyatt's history, culture, operations, and development.

AAHOA YP Director at Large (Eastern Division) Binita Patel expressed enthusiasm for the event and for the future of AAHOA's growing relationship with Hyatt.

"This is an incredibly exciting time to be an AAHOA young professional member," she said. "The Hyatt-AAHOA relationship has experienced significant positive growth in the last few years and this event - the first of its kind at Hyatt - is clear evidence of that growth."

AAHOA President and CEO Chip Rogers was also full of praise for the Hyatt initiative.

"We are delighted that so many of our young professional members are taking advantage of this wonderful event," Rogers said. "I am grateful to Hyatt leadership for offering them this day of invaluable hands-on learning and the chance to strengthen their industry connections."

The next brand workshop for AAHOA's young professional members will be held on October 24, 2016, at Hilton Headquarters in McLean, Virginia.
