AAHOA Golf Tournaments Go Full Swing for Local Charities

ATLANTA, Aug. 21, 2017—The Asian American Hotel Owners Association (AAHOA) will host two major charity golf tournaments near the end of the month.

The 14th Annual Northwest Region Charity Golf Tournament and Auction will be held in Aloha, Ore., on Aug. 23 at the Reserve Vineyards & Golf Club. Money raised from the Northwest Region tournament will be donated to the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Oregon, Autism Society of Oregon and Businesses Ending Slavery and Trafficking (BEST).

The 2017 Charlotte Shootout, which will be held in Charlotte, NC, Aug. 26-27 will be held at the Golf Club at Ballantyne. Money raised will be donated to the American Heart Association, USO of North Carolina, Samaritans Feet, Jamie Kimble Foundation for Courage, BAPS Charities, The Sandbox, Isabella Santos Foundation, Hindu Center, and the Pediatric Cancer Research Foundation.

These events offer AAHOA members an opportunity to network with peers while putting their time and resources to good use in the community.

###

AAHOA is the largest hotel owners association in the world. The more than 16,000 AAHOA members own almost one in every two hotels in the United States. With billions of dollars in property assets and hundreds of thousands of employees, AAHOA members are core economic contributors in virtually every community in the United States. As an association, AAHOA is a proud defender of free enterprise and the foremost current-day example of realizing the American Dream.
